Experience

News Producer- Daily Post Punjabi August 2023 – Present

At Daily Post Punjabi, I played a pivotal role as a digital and broadcast journalist, focused particularly on political and governance reporting. My key responsibilities and achievements included:

- Curated and consolidated breaking political news and intelligence from field teams, correspondents, and news wires, ensuring timely coverage
- Wrote and edited political news stories and analysis for both broadcast and digital platforms, upholding strict editorial standards of accuracy, clarity, and impartiality
- Collaborated closely with the news director to select, prioritize, and frame political narratives from election coverage and legislative developments to policy decisions and accountability journalism
- Coordinated the seamless execution of newscasts, ensuring on-air segments were clean, coherent, and contextually relevant to current political events and audience interests
- Assisted in shaping the digital-first strategy by adapting broadcast content for online audiences, optimizing for engagement while maintaining journalistic integrity
- Supported real-time coverage of key political events and debates, contributing data, fact-checks, and quick-turn analysis to keep audiences informed

Intern – Cha-Chi Communications June 2022 – July 2022

- Wrote and refined ad scripts and branded content with narrative clarity, aligning with the brand's voice and audience expectations
- Developed blog / editorial content optimized for digital platforms (SEO-rich articles, topical features)
- Produced social media campaigns and multimedia content (graphics, captions, short videos) that drove audience engagement
- Generated monthly analytic reports tracking content performance, user engagement, and reach
- Collaborated with cross-functional teams (creative, marketing) to ensure cohesive content strategy across digital channels

Certifications & Training

- Certificate in Digital Journalism, Reuters (Reuters + Facebook Journalism Project)
- Google Certificate in Digital Marketing & E-Commerce (Fundamentals of Digital Marketing)

Reporter & Sub Editor- Times of Bennett Nov 2020 – Jan 2021

- Conducted in-depth research, investigative interviews, and fact verification to develop accurate news stories across political, health, and education beats
- Wrote, edited, and optimized content for both print and digital platforms ensuring clarity, precision, SEO relevance, and editorial consistency
- Designed and assembled newspaper pages and layouts, integrating visual storytelling with written content
- Reported on political and governance developments, crafting compelling narratives grounded in analysis and context
